

This AGREEMENT is made on ____ / ____ / ____ between the undersigned parties; Indiana Filmmakers Network Inc. (IFN) and _____ (herby referred to as Volunteer).

These are the parties to this agreement. They expect the cover terms of agreements as well as to disclose confidential information to each other for the following purpose:

Volunteer agrees to have read and understood the IFN state bylaws.

Volunteer agrees to abide by and adhere to the bylaws of the organization.

Volunteer agrees not to misappropriate IFN Inc. materials, properties, or resources.

Volunteer agrees not to use IFN for personal gain or profit.

Volunteer agrees to not make IFN meetings, events, hubs, etc. about yourself, your company, or your projects.

Volunteer agrees not to use IFN or appear to use IFN to promote yourself, businesses, colleges, friends, family, etc.

Volunteer agrees to not promote any particular projects or offer any financial or in-kind support to any project (especially without state board approval).

Volunteer agrees not to take part in any activity for which a 501c3, as an organization, cannot legally participate.

Volunteer understand failure to enforce any provision within this agreement by IFN does not waive that provision.

Volunteer agrees to follow all local, state, federal, and international laws to the best of their ability.

Volunteer agrees not to use IFN or its resources to commit any criminal or morally questionable activity.

Volunteer agrees that as a representative of the organization, they will NOT speak on behalf of IFN Inc., its members, partners, affiliates, etc. in regard to anything political, legislative, or religious, or use IFN resources toward any such goals.

Volunteer agrees not to use any IFN Intellectual Property outside of official IFN business or operations.

Volunteer agrees to any/all terms required for them to be given individual access to IFN operations material, intellectual properties, workshops, event planning, sponsors and resources lists, etc. as well as to not violate the terms within this document, the IFN state bylaws (or it's addendums), and they will NOT share said information or resources outside of those who have also signed this agreement, the state board, or upon approval from the state board.

Volunteer agrees to ensure IFN is inclusive and welcoming.

Volunteer agrees not to use confidential information outside the organization without prior written approval.

Volunteer agrees to use a reasonable degree of care to protect any confidential information they receive; including but not limited to protecting this information from unauthorized use or disclosure.

Confidential information is information that either party has developed or obtained and has taken reasonable steps to protect from disclosure. Confidential information is NOT information that

- (a) the recipient of the confidential information already knew through proper means;
- (b) is publicly available through no fault of the recipient;
- (c) the recipient rightfully received or will receive from a third party with no confidentiality duty; or
- (d) the recipient develops independently.

This is the parties' entire agreement on this matter, superseding all previous negotiations or agreements. It can only be changed by mutual written consent.

The laws of the state of Indiana govern this agreement and any disputes arising from it will be handled exclusively in courts in that state. The prevailing party in any dispute will be entitled to recover reasonable costs and attorneys' fees.

By signing below Volunteer agrees to the above terms and conditions.
